GLOUCESTER

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Gloucester, Va., April .27.—"Baial" ever celebrated for its charming hospitality, was the scene, on Friday evening of a delightful dancing party given by Mr. and Mrs. Al H. Drewry, in honor of Miss Susannah Martin, The house was a bower of lines and graceful wistaria; the floors as line as wax could make them, and with Mrs, David Saunders to play, everything combined to make the evening one of unalloyed pleasure to the fifty guests present. After dainty and de-
